This past week, the world lost three great entertainers. We have lost famed singer/entertainer Screamin' Jay Hawkins - who oddly enough had an album cover posted here last week. Even more odd was the ironic passing of beloved cartoonist, Charles Schultz, who died in his sleep on the eve of the publication of the final Peanuts cartoon. But by far the most talented yet least understood was the writer/comic actor Jim Varney, star of many "Ernest" films. We're gonna miss you Jim, knowwhutlmean?
