The information listed here is compiled, borrowed and stolen from all over the damn place.

An asterisk (*) indicates a old music: vault recordings, a re-release, or a new edition of a release previously available elsewhere (i.e. North American version of a release previously available on import).

These dates are always subject to change, so don't blame us if a release is delayed, cancelled or otherwise unavailable on the announced date.

If you are a label or artist with upcoming release(s) suitable for this listing, or if you know about something coming up that we don't have listed, email releases at brainwashed. If you want your releases displayed, it's best to copy the format we have to make things quicker and easier for us (ie: we don't want descriptions or cover images, just date, artist, title, format, label, and country).
