Come spend a hot summer night with our old friend David Grubbs, the man who's been in bands longer than a number of brainwashed readers were alive and has lived in the three of the most trendy musical hotspots (Louisville, Chicago, and Brooklyn) before they were cool or the trendy hotspots of indie rock. His current tour includes the fabulous Greek cellist Nikos Veliotis and we're pleased once again to produce a fantastic episode of The Eye, once again with multiple camera integration.
