

Brainwashed - "And Suddenly Everything, Absolutely Everything, Was There"

Written by Staff

Sunday, 02 August 2015 10:25 - Last Updated Sunday, 02 August 2015 11:15

Utech Records has, over the past decade, released critically acclaimed albums from established artists such as James Plotkin, Lasse Marhaug, and Justin Broadrick, as well as fostered the work of newer projects like Locrian, Nadja, and Horseback. Many of those artists appear on this digital compilation with exclusive or live material unavailable elsewhere. It is nearly four and a half hours of music, with all of the proceeds going to support the Utech family at this incredibly difficult time. In an era where so many crowd funding campaigns are simply a cash grab, this is one that will truly help a family in need.

The digital compilation is available at <http://utechfamilybenefit.bandcamp.com>

Kim Utech lost her battle against breast cancer on July 1, 2015. She leaves behind her husband Keith and their two children, 12-year-old son Jackson, and 9-year-old daughter, Piper. Keith's sister-in-law, Michelle Kubler Utech, created a GoFundMe page to raise funds to assist Keith with living expenses while he takes time off to be with their children and to help with the expenses incurred while Kim was receiving treatment.

This compilation, assembled by friends and supporters of Utech Records, contains forty-one tracks worth of exclusive material—some previously unreleased, some recorded live, some created specifically for this release—with a runtime of nearly 4 1/2 hours.

Brainwashed - "And Suddenly Everything, Absolutely Everything, Was There"

Written by Staff

Sunday, 02 August 2015 10:25 - Last Updated Sunday, 02 August 2015 11:15

100% of the proceeds (after Bandcamp and PayPal take their cuts) will be donated to the Utech Family Fund.

For more information about the Utech Family Fund, visit the GoFundMe link below:

www.gofundme.com/yhq9bg