For a limited time the V/Vm New-Beat seven track celebration which is "I wanna fuck miss nicky trax" is available for purchase directly from the V/Vm website. There are currently no plans to commercially release this record and it has been decided that the record will not be promoted. Only a couple of shops will be stocking this record so it's unlikely you will see it once this limited offer has expired.

You can preview all seven tracks from this new and imported 12" maxi-single right now as well as enjoying the additional free MP3s at the following link

The cost for the record is ?6 if you are in the U.K. which includes postage and packing. The cost rises slightly if you are based around the world, again all prices quoted include shipping to wherever you are. Additionally if you are based in the United Kingdom you are cordially invited to purchase this limited release by Cheque. The cost is ?6 and the cheque must be made payable to "James Kirby" and sent to the following land address.
