Those who have tried to collect the entire discography of Coil have often been stymied by the cassette release Dolbied, a collaboration between Coil, The New Blockaders and Vortex Campaign released in an edition of 50 back in 1984. The vain searching is over now, as Stephen Meixner and Black Rose Recordings are planning an authorized CD reissue with a planned release date of October 1.

The CD, entitled The Melancholy Mad Tenant, is set to include not only the entire Dolbied cassette, but also two additional tracks from the same sessions. It will be released in an edition of 500 in hand screen-printed covers, which includes a special "cloth bag" edition of 100. Pricing and ordering information as follows (check xe.com for up-to-date currency conversions):
