Here at Brainwashed we're devastated when we hear of labels sending music to the landfills. There's plenty of uses for spare CDs: keep some at the home, office, give to friends, leave at coffee shops, use as coasters, etc... We're currently trying to unload some CD overruns: CDs that have no artwork. We're giving them away at $1 each and have a number of titles in the Brainwashed Commerce section.

If you bought some, buy more. If you're interested in spindles for a giveaway at your record store, radio station, club night, or wherever, feel free to contact us . Don't let these orphans go to waste!
